St. Jeromes

by William McCulloch

Collinwood's St Jeromes Church, named for scholar Jerome (347-420), marks their centennial this month. Jerome, whose knowledge of Greek and Hebrew, translated the bible into Latin producing the Vulgate, which stood as the Catholic Church's standard version till 1979. He was also known for his teachings on Christian moral life.

In Emery Brandich's 1989 "A History of St. Joseph's Church (Collinwood)", he gives the background on the growth of Collinwood population between 1900 of 3000 people to 9000 in 1910 when it was annexed by Cleveland. St. Joseph Church was Collinwood's initial Catholic Church in 1877 to serve the families of the recently built rail yard, whose first Mass was December 25th. With this growth and the church's limited seating capacity, the parish needed to hold 4 Masses on Sundays. Also at this time Collinwood received a great influx of Slovenians and Italians, which St. Joseph's clergy were unable to hear their confession in their native language, resulting in the creation of St. Mary's and Holy Redeemer parishes.

Cleveland Plogs Lakeshore Boulevard!

Ploggers and doggos strike a pose after plogging East 152nd in May!

by Stephen Love

Join Cleveland Plogs every last Wednesday of the month through October for a neighborhood plogging cleanup!

Last month, we hit up the Waterloo Arts District just in time for the Waterloo Arts Fest! Thanks to Collinwood Collective volunteers, all the new plants looked great and our ploggers hit up Waterloo and surrounding streets sprucing up by picking up hundreds of cigarettes, wrappers, bottle caps, receipts and more!

For this month's plogging, volunteers will meet outside Collinwood Rec Center (16300 Lakeshore Blvd). The Plogging route will cover the Lakeshore Blvd business district along with several surrounding streets. Best part of all, you don't have to run marathons to Plogg! This will be a slow paced run - just under 2 miles - with plenty of stops along the way - to pick up trash!

Please wear clothing you don't mind getting sweaty and a little dirty and please wear closed toed shoes - preferably shoes you don't mind running in! Water and light refreshments will be provided before we head out.

We'll cross the finish line around 7pm back at Collinwood Rec Center and then

Ohio First Lady Fran Dewine Visits Cleveland Public Library Collinwood Branch

by Caroline Peak

On Thursday, June 27th, Ohio's First Lady, Fran DeWine visited the Collinwood Branch of Cleveland Public Library (CPL) as part of a visit to Cleveland to tour the Greater Cleveland Food Bank and the library. Mrs. DeWine shared lunch with neighborhood children as part of the free summer feeding lunch program sponsored in partnership with the Greater Cleveland Food Bank. An advocate for healthy eating, Mrs. DeWine wanted to know what foods the kids liked and the ones they did not prefer. In addition, she passed out bags of fresh fruits for the children to take home. The First Lady of Ohio took pictures with the children and mingled with guests including CPL Executive Director & CEO, Felton Thomas, Jr.; CPL Board of Trustees members Maritza Rodriguez, Thomas D. Corrigan, and John M. Hairston, Jr.; Councilman Michael Polensek; Jessica Morgan, VP of Agency Programs and Services and Diana Davet, Director of Programs of the Greater Cleveland Food Bank. Collinwood Branch Manager Caroline J. Peak, gave a brief tour of the branch to talk about services provided to the community with a concentration on the literacy initiatives featuring "Making a Literacy Connection" via the branch Literacy Corner and Literacy Monday activities.

Walk All Over Waterloo July 5

Waterloo Makes Music: Tower Music Series 7 - 9

Thanks to Cleveland Rocks: Past, Present and Future, Tower Music during WAOW will feature Erin Neal and The Chill Factors and The Crazy Marvin Blues Band.

Erin Neal and The Chill Factors are an eclectic Cleveland based band formed in 2015. Erin Nicole Neal & The Chill Factors, delve into Blues, Rock, Pop, Soul, Jazz, Funk, R&B, Gospel and Reggae. The band plays all over Northeast Ohio for private and public events. Covers include artists like Aretha Franklin, BB King, Janis Joplin, Bob Marley, The Temptations, Bill Withers, Bad Company, The Beatles, Michael Jackson and more!

Crazy Marvin is a living Cleveland Blues Legend. “Crazy Marvin” Braxton, born May 30, 1943 in Cleveland Ohio had music put in his soul, as do so many of the greats, by his mother and father who played the piano in church. He got started by blowing on a tuba, but quickly discovered a harmonica, won a talent contest at the famed Leo’s Casino in Cleveland, found himself on stage being introduced by Ray Charles at the Apollo Theater in Harlem, ... and has been making folks smile and dance ever since.

Waterloo Arts Juried Exhibition 2019 at Waterloo Arts, Praxis and BRICK

The show juried by artist Anthony Mastromatteo occupies three galleries on the street: Praxis, Waterloo Arts and BRICK, and runs until July 19. Local and national artists contributed a large body of generally high-quality work in several mediums, including ceramic and fiber.

A few personal favorites at Praxis: two pieces by Tatiana Gracyk – “Ocean Fashion,” fluffy fiber molded into the head and shoulders of a woman with a fishhook through her lip, dressed in tattered mesh produce bags, all in shades of blue; and a similar figure in shades of rose, “We Chose Warmth over Wisdom.” Also Karen Schnell Chisholm’s “Shoreline – to be Hung or Worn,” weaving and mesh, in shades of sand and blue. (I look forward to seeing it being worn at, maybe, an Underground Classical concert.)

While I was at Praxis, I also checked out the indigo banner they were making for Cuyahoga 50, in its final stages of construction. It is enormous. Many, many people heard the call!

Two pieces called out to me from the over-all high-quality show at Waterloo Arts: “Blue Crown” by Marcus Wiltsher – a large portrait of an African-American woman wearing a vivid blue turban, set against a blank background; the similar “Golden Crown” struck me, also. My other “I’d take that home!” was “Polyps” by Jonas Jacob – a big assemblage of red, orange, pink et cetera woven shapes – a joyful creation.

Framed Gallery

Tracy Bartels has an extraordinary collection of work by African-American artists from all over the country, and many will be on view during WAOW. The works – mostly figurative, with some scenes – are priced for affordability, with some as low as $20, many from $100 to $500, and a few above $1000. They include works by well-established artists: Atlanta -based Charly Palmer, Houston artist Carolyn Crump, Evita Tezeno (also of Texas), Toronto artist Michael Gibson, Hampton Olufus of South Carolina, and many others.

On July 12, Stacy will present “Sensibilities Worth Experiencing,” work by Michael Gibson, who creates reality with a pencil. Opening reception and meet&greet with the artist 6 – 9 pm. Michael Gibson: “I try to push the limits of realism in the graphite medium, simply imitating reality isn’t my primary goal. In fact it’s not about how much detail you choose to put in a piece, it’s what you choose to leave out, that is where the challenge begins”.

Article Gallery Presents “Ursuline Invitational”

Which involves five generations of family, friends and faculty, 33 artists in all. The opening is 6-10 pm during WAOW, with an artists’ dialog scheduled for 8 pm.

Other Attractions

Phone Gallery: Check out the new artist in Phone Gallery for June + July 2019! Eleanor’s colorful work “SALAD” relates fruits and veggies to the human body. (Actually a telephone call box and therefore easy to miss: hunt it down attached to Russ’ Auto Care, 1302 Waterloo, on the south side of the street between Calcutta and Shiloh.)

StarPOP Vintage + Modern, next door to Framed Gallery, has Dr Who figures. I rather crave the one with the loonngg scarf.

AT PRAXIS

Underground Classical Presents TMT Trio +2 July 26, 8 pm

Brooklyn/Cleveland-based jazz group TMT Trio+2 features Juno Award winner Cat Toren on piano, Angela Morris on tenor saxophone, and Anthony Taddeo on drums. Uniquely sans bass, TMT showcases the multifaceted chamber music character of the piano by drawing from modern jazz, new music and avant-rock. Their repertoire features original compositions, collective improvisations and re-imaginings of standards by the three band members. After five years as a band, the trio released their debut album, Star Ballad, in 2017. Joining TMT Trio for this performance are Ohio natives Chris Coles on alto saxophone and Sam Blakeslee on trombone. These five instrumentalists are equally accomplished composers, and this concert will include the premiere of new works written especially for the occasion. (Plus – Anthony Taddeo is one of my nicest neighbors.)

Joining TMT Trio for this performance are Ohio natives Chris Coles on alto saxophone and Sam Blakeslee on trombone. Both musicians have worked closely with the trio, and Sam (who now resides in New York) is featured on their album Star Ballad. These five instrumentalists are equally accomplished composers, and this concert will include the premiere of new works written especially for the occasion.

AROUND THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Ladybug by the Beach Summer Sale

Shady hats, summery bags, pretty seasonal outfits – Mittie Jordan has an eye for summery accessories. Her little shop Ladybug has them on sale (at 25% off) Thursdays and Fridays (2-7 pm) and Saturdays (11 – 7). 15226 Lakeshore Boulevard at the corner of Huntmere. Visit her Web site, www.kumbayashore.com, to view some of her stock.

This little shop, lurking in a mini strip mall on Lakeshore Blvd at the corner of Huntmere, is this neighborhood’s best kept secret – the soon-to-be coffee shop/bookstore/event space Kumbaya (a place for peaceful pastime) and its companion – Ladybug by the Beach, a seasonal boutique stocked with holiday gifts in December, and now offering Fun in the Sun, clothing and accessories designed for days in the park or on the beach, and gifts and home décor geared toward the summer wedding season.

This is all the work of Mittie Jordan, who for 14 years owned Deuteronomy 8.3 on E105, providing daily retail offerings of books, beverages, baked goods, soups, sandwiches (and the founder’s popular Amish recipe-based Fellowship Bread) along with book signings, exhibits, live music, cultural celebrations, film screenings, and extended spring and fall book discussion series, bringing college faculty from throughout Ohio and beyond. D8:3 was also a setting for community meetings, and programmed and hosted seven restorative justice summits

Deuteronomy was urban-renewed out of existence, and Mittie Jordan is now pursuing social justice, and providing a little very attractive shopping, in Collinwood. Starting over from scratch is never easy; Mittie has also launched a GoFundMe site to provide the capital she needs to fit up a coffee shop to official standards; visit www.gofundme.com/f/kumbaya-please if you’d like to help establish a neighborhood gathering spot on Lakeshore Blvd.

But first visit Ladybug, the little shop, and talk to Mittie. You’ll most likely leave with a treasure and a conviction.

Collinwood Splash at the Rec Center Thursday, July 25

5:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Food, neighborhood information and outdoor activities. Meet and greet with Councilman Polensek and Commander Morris. Vendors welcome to help showcase neighborhood services and organizations (No Food Vendors). Non-profit organizations $15.00 / table. Vendors $20.00 / table (forms available at the Rec Center). Check or money order to be paid with application, due Saturday, July 20. To benefit the Friends of Collinwood Recreation Committee. Call Kawana Little at (216) 420-8323. Walgreen’s Is Moving

The Walgreen’s store and pharmacy on the north side of Lakeshore at E156 will close on October 31, and move across the road to the former Popeye’s, where it will focus on pharmacy services, plus basic health and beauty aids, rather than miscellaneous retail – which seems to have been taken over by dollar stores. This model change, they say, is happening across the country; besides the dollar stores, people do more shopping on line, and pharmaceutical reimbursements have been dropping. Councilman Polensek, unthrilled by this news, is talking to Walgreen’s management about smartening up the Popeye’s building and parking, and to the building’s owner about opportunities for reuse. If you want to comment, he can be reached at (216) 664-4236 or at mpolensek@clevelandcitycouncil.org.

Birding At Wildwood July 12, 10 – 11 am.

The diverse habitat of Euclid Creek Reservation is great for viewing birds both large and small. Search the creek, meadows and lake shore with Naturalist Jeff Riebe for waterfowl, raptors and more. Please bring binoculars, limited numbers available to borrow. Meet at Wildwood Shelter parking lot.

Summer Sprouts: The Beach July 15, 10:30 - 11:15 am.

There’s so much to discover under the waters of our Great Lake! Join Naturalist Natalie Schroder at Euclid Beach for some fun in the sun and learn about the animals that call this unique habitat home. Meet at Euclid Beach parking lot. 3 - 5 years with adult.

Birds, Blooms & Butterflies July 17, 2 – 4 pm

The banks of Euclid Creek are teeming with life. Join Naturalist Natalie Schroder on a trip upstream as we search for birds, blooms and butterflies in the wetland, under the bridges and through the meadow. Meet at Wildwood entrance parking lot.

Food at the Park

Wildwood Concessions are open 11am-7pm daily. The menu features the usual snacks – French fries, onion rings, nachos – plus burgers, hot dogs . . . and Buffalo-fried cauliflower. Kids’ menu for under-twelves. Wildwood also has a Ship Store (7am-7pm daily during the season), where you can find live bait and tackle, snacks and drinks, and the highest quality non-ethanol marine fuel as well as diesel. 216.481.5771.

Euclid Beach Concessions are open Fridays 3 – 9 pm, Saturday & Sunday 12 pm - 8 pm, during the Euclid Beach LIVE concert series. They also serve snacks, Humphrey’s Popcorn Balls and kisses, hot dogs and chicken fingers . . . and Honey Hut ice cream. There’s a kids’ menu, too.

I’m impressed that the Metroparks sell beer and wine for on-site consumption. I have a vivid memory of a Cleveland Heights policeman in Cain Park ordering us to pour out our bottle of delicious Gewurtztraminer. After that, we brought our wine on soft-drink bottles.

AT THE MARKET

The market has cherries! Sweet cherries first, most likely sour cherries very soon.

There is quite a selection of produce coming in ... finally. Both farmers and shoppers have been fretting over the delayed season – the lettuce is lovely, but where are the tomatoes? Now we can have both, along with

Report - E 185th Neighborhood Association Meeting: Our Annual Potluck Picnic

by Elva Brodnick

Given the way the weather's been going this summer, you can imagine our being a tad leery about our annual E 185th Neighborhood Association Potluck Picnic. And right up to the day before, the weather was doing its best to be "iffy".

Turns out, we were fine. Breeze was maybe brisker than you'd think it'd be in June, but these many years of doing events along our Lake, have taught us that that air right down by the Lake will always be moving. And cooler. And so it was. Comfortable - and dry.

So we gathered at Wildwood's Pavilion, with everyone bringing everything from lovely desserts to great salads and sides. Since we don't plan a speaker for this meeting, this annual Picnic gives us a chance to relax and chat - always a good thing. And, as always, we welcome both the Fifth District Community Engagement Officers, and Councilman Polensek to report on things around our neighborhood. (We even had a rather curious young robin there, who seemed determined to listen in, as he stayed our whole meeting. Much to the chagrin of his mom . . .) It was our usual good time, with good neighbors sharing good talk and food.

As always, we invite you to check out your local Neighborhood Association - the meetings are always listed in the Community Meetings calendar here in the Collinwood Observer. This is your regular chance, to talk to both the Councilman, and our local Police District - and it's a great way to be active in this community of ours.

Look forward to seeing you! (And bring a neighbor!)

See you next month!

Neighborhood Leadership Development Program Seeks 2019 Applicants

In 2006, the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation, along with former Cleveland Mayor Michael White, established a leadership training program for engaged neighborhood leaders. The Neighborhood Leadership Development Program is a free, 16 session community engagement training program for residents of Cleveland, and its inner ring suburbs, who are working on projects within the City of Cleveland and who are determined to make a positive impact on their communities.

After the application process, 20 committed individuals are chosen for the program year. NLDP participants and graduates are a diverse group with many interests who are working on a wide variety of issues to improve life in their communities.

The program will cover topics such as program planning, marketing & communications, program fundraising, conflict resolution and negotiation, community engagement methods and more.

Every NLDP participant and NLDP graduate also has ongoing access to the services of a Program Coach. NLDP coaches give advice and support tailored to the needs of the participant.

The 16 sessions take place on Saturdays at Trinity Commons at 2230 Euclid Avenue beginning August 24. The deadline for applications is AUGUST 5, 2019. For additional information, the 2019-2020 curriculum and an online application, visit www.nldpcleveland.com or call 216-776-6167.

Friends of Euclid Creek Present an Environmental Double- Header

ART SHOW AND SPEAKER SERIES

Cleveland, Ohio, June 2019 – Fifty years ago, on June 22, 1969 Cleveland captured the nation's attention when the Cuyahoga River caught fire. The river was dead, killed by carelessness and industrial waste. Although the Cuyahoga had caught fire a dozen times before, this was to be the last time the river burned. National outrage over a burning river turned into national determination to clean up the environment across the United States. This event in combination with a massive oil spill in California led to the establishment of the Federal Environmental Protection Agency, the Clean Water Act, and the Clean Air Act. These actions formed the foundation of the environmental protection movement which led to the cleaning of the Cuyahoga. Citizens and government agencies working together have brought the river back to life so that 50 years later, the Cuyahoga River is once again safe to admire and enjoy.

The Friends of Euclid Creek, The Collinwood Rain Barrel Project and the City of Beachwood are celebrating this anniversary with an art show, a painted rain barrel silent auction, and an educational program on how we affect Lake Erie, and how, in turn, Lake Erie affects us. All events are free and open to the public at the City of Beachwood Community Center, 25325 Fairmount Blvd., Beachwood, Ohio

The "Art in Nature" exhibition will feature painted rain barrels, photography, paintings and mixed media works by local artists. Proceeds from the painted rain barrel silent auction will benefit the Friends of Euclid Creek programming fund. The public can meet the artists at an Artists' Reception on Sunday, August 4 from 1:00-2:30 PM at the Beachwood Community Center. Light refreshments will be served. The art show will run from Wednesday, July 31 through Thursday, August 22. The art gallery is open from 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM, Monday through Friday and on Saturday from 10 AM – 3 PM and on Sunday 10 AM – 1 PM.

The "Lake Erie Speakers Series" will be held on Thursday, August 8, from 6:30-8:30 PM and refreshments will be served.

The Friends of Euclid Creek "Lake Erie Speaker Series" will feature three distinguished speakers:

Fredrick Vincent of the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District will speak on the "Deep Tunnel Sewer Project" currently under construction beneath the streets of Cleveland. Wondering about endless street construction holes, giant pipes and raising sewer rates? Mr. Vincent will explain the project and its importance to the health of Lake Erie.

Chris Winslow, Director of the Ohio State University Stone Lab, will discuss "How Activities on Land Affect Lake Erie". Population pressures, development, litter, and pollution are just a few things that harm the lake.

Dr. Robert Brand, of the Cuyahoga County Board of Health will speak on "Safe Consumption of Fish from Lake Erie". This talk should be of interest to anyone who fishes in Lake Erie or eats Lake Erie walleye or perch.

The Euclid Creek watershed encompasses eleven communities in eastern Cuyahoga County covering 23 square miles. It drains stormwater runoff from that entire area and extends from its headwaters in Beachwood to its mouth at Wildwood Reservation in Lake Erie in Cleveland. The Friends of Euclid Creek works to improve the health of the environment in the Euclid Creek Watershed; seeks to raise awareness about and preserve the natural features of the Euclid Creek Watershed; and acts as the citizen voice for the Euclid Creek Watershed. The Friends of Euclid Creek volunteers offer educational opportunities, stream restoration activities, and monthly water quality monitoring of the Creek. For more information on the Friends of Euclid Creek, visit euclidcreekwatershed.org or contact Elizabeth Hiser the Euclid Creek Watershed Program Manager at ehiser@cuyahogawcd.org.

The Friends of Euclid Creek gratefully acknowledges the financial support of our sponsors that make these events possible: Cuyahoga Arts and Culture, the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District, the City of Beachwood, and the members of the Friends of Euclid Creek.

Annual Our Lady of the Lake Parish Picnic

OLL Parish Picnic is always a wonderful family day!

Children's games are part of the fun.

by Bev Caldwell

It was a perfect sunny day, on Sunday, June 23rd, for this year's Parish Picnic. Noon Mass under the shade of the pavilion at the Italian American Club was followed by a delicious picnic, bocce ball and children's games.

They're Never Too Young to Sing...

Friends with God (Youth Music Ministry) singing on steps of church at the 200th Street Stroll.

by Bev Caldwell

Music has a young face these days... Just ask the new group of Friends with God YMM (Youth Music Ministry) how they feel they can make a difference... "We like to make people smile when we sing" said one youngster, who summed it up pretty well.

The Friends with God YMM roster is made up of 18 students from Our Lady of the Lake School. Most are from grades Kindergarten thru grade three, with a few older youth choir students that join them to take the lead in some of the songs. The new youth music ministry gives the young folks a chance to shine at events such as the E. 200th street Stroll and also the OLL Parish Picnic.

Under the direction of Mrs. Melissa Gali-Bird, Music Director at OLL, the children were asked for ideas for a group name and "Friends with God" was submitted by Luna Kime. In a show of support, The Genesis Group of OLL, an active 50 plus parish ministry group, donated funds for Friends with God to get matching t-shirts.

Please keep your eyes and ears open for Friends with God out in the community. They will be singing next at the Slovene Home. So, if you hear such favorites as "This Little Light of Mine" and "We are Called" sung with joy, it might just be Friends with God trying to make you smile...

Vacation Bible School Goes to Athens for Holy Land Adventure

2019 Vacation Bible School Journeys to Athens.

by Bev Caldwell

Thirty VBS children journeyed to Athens for a Holy Land adventure at the OLL Vacation Bible School June 10-14.

Traveling back in time to ancient Greece, the children visited with St. Paul every day to hear of his dangerous journey to share the Truth. The setting was an open air market, complete with makeshift tents. All crafts and snacks had to be purchased with Drammas.

Besides participating in arena games and eating Athenian foods, the children decorated a Trojan Horse Treasure Box, created pottery, and wrote on and sealed scrolls, with wax and a stamper. Twenty-five adult and teen volunteers under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Kane fashioned the creative oasis of learning in the parish hall.

St. Paul, portrayed by Drew Piotrkowski, shares his adventures with the children.

A century of Faith, Family, and Friendship!

Founding Pastor, Monsignor Leo Hammer, served the parish of St. Jerome for 50 years!

Musical Theater was another very popular activity over the years, from adult productions to lavish school musicals, the arts are a proud tradition at St. Jerome.

Football (1981 team) and other sports were always a part of the life of St. Jerome School.

There was always something to do at St. Jerome!

Girl's basketball, volleyball, and cheer teams were popular activities.

St. Jeromes (continued from front page)

Per Brandich's text, "The founding of St. Jerome's was due to a presentation that Fr. Bell (St. Joseph's) made to Bishop Farrelly. Some members of the parish who lived in the Lake Shore section came to Fr. Bell, with the suggestion that they needed a parish in their "neck of the woods." After cautioning the men to say nothing about the matter, he found that 125 families lived in the area. This information was passed on to Bishop Farrelly, who, after studying the situation, gave permission to Fr. Bell to buy the land for the future site of St. Jeromes. One year later, in September of 1919, Fr. Leo Hammer, who was Fr. Bell's assistant, was appointed to form the new parish, which consisted of all the land north of the New York Central Railroad tracks, that had been part of St. Joseph's."

A tent was raised and beginning October 6, 1919, Sunday Masses were celebrated. By October 3, 1920 the first church was completed and dedicated by Bishop Farrelly. In September of 1922 the school was completed, and the dedication of the modified Gothic-style church took place in 1952.

The parish continues in good works supporting Collinwood Churches Interfaith Council Food Pantry and food, clothing distribution at The Father Michael Witman Ozanam Center at St. Philomena church in East Cleveland, and Christmas Giving Tree for needed items at Manorcare Euclid Beach and coats, hats and gloves for St. Jerome students. They also work with City Music Cleveland Chamber Orchestra to provide fine arts programs 3-4 times a year with no admission charge with hymns set to favorite polka and waltz melodies on the button box. Father Norm Gajdzinski, pastor emeritus of St. Theresa in Garfield Heights, Ohio, joins Kathy for this unique expression of faith, based upon Slovenian-American musical traditions. Sing-along sheets are provided.

Polka Mass with Kathy Hlad, Plus Don Wojtila at SNPJ Farm, Sunday, July 28

North Collinwood's Kathy Hlad leads the Polka Mass at SNPJ Farm in Kirtland, Ohio, Sunday, July 28. Don Wojtila and his orchestra follow with four hours of polka music for dancing.

The Don Wojtila Orchestra is a longtime favorite, with a rollicking, fun-filled take on polka that makes you want to get up and dance. Accordionist Don Wojtila revitalizes the classic Cleveland Style with the music of his youth -- rock-and-roll, pop, country music, and even Broadway tunes. The result is one the most versatile bands on the polka scene -- especially as Schnickelfritz at Cleveland's Hofbrau Haus. Don and his musical team perform from 3:00 to 7:00.

Dinner and sandwiches are served from 2:00 on with your choice of smoked Slovenian sausage or home-style roast beef. Admission is $8, 18 and under free. Your hosts are the members and friends of Charter Lodge 5, Naprej, of the Slovene National Benefit Society (SNPJ), celebrating their organization's 115th anniversary. Call (216) 481-1379, for details.

SNPJ Farm is on Heath Road in Kirtland, Ohio, off Chardon Road (Route 6), three miles east of Route 306 and six miles west of State Route 44.

Men In Black International movie review

by Brian Friedman
Color me all shades of surprised. Went in with low expectations as anyone rational would do for a reboot and I left pleasantly entertained. While the leads aren't exactly Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones, there is enough chemistry between Hemsworth and Thompson to keep my attention. Plus, four movies in and this sci-fi universe still has enough in the tank to tell more stories. Grade - a solid B.

X-Men Dark Phoenix Movie Review

by Brian Friedman
Color me all shades of surprised. Went in with low eX Men: Dark Phoenix Movie Review: This movie is utter garbage. The plot takes forever to get going and then stalls and the directorial decisions are bewildering. Long-time Producer turned first-time Director Simon Kinberg is somehow able to make some of the hottest young actors in Hollywood look inept which is its own talent. Grade: F plus.

Estate Planning: Last Will and Testament

by Ari Goldstein
Chances are good you haven't given any serious thought to planning a Last Will and Testament. Most people just generally think they don't need one. But as we all know, life happens. And if it happens to you it is best to be prepared. Regardless of your age you should at least have a will.

Let's say you have a relative, perhaps a cousin. You HATE this cousin. The two of you have never gotten along, you are always fighting, and worst of all he is a Steelers fan. What a loser! Anyway, some unfortunate accident happened, and you die; and despite your best efforts you couldn't take all your possessions into the next life with you. On the flip side, maybe you have a relative you LOVE and want to repay them for that time they lent you five bucks at the Drive Thru. If neither of those apply, possibly your church or other organization.

Ok, no problem, we will just take a quick look at your will but you never went and got one! So you have now died Intestate, which is the legal industry term for "Person with no will." But you still have property that needs to be dispersed so Ohio gathers up all your stuff, appoints an Executor, and the Executor just gives away your property to your next of kin and closes the estate.

But how does Ohio determine who your next of kin is going to be? Well, we start with you and look downwards. Do you have any living children? They are your next of kin. If you don't have any living children Ohio just keeps going down until they find a living descendant. But you died childless! So now Ohio goes up. Any living parents? No? Do your PARENTS have any living descendants? If they don't, do you have living grandparents? No living grandparents means Ohio looks for any living descendants of your grandparents. And what do you know, that cousin of yours is still alive and he gets EVERYTHING! Yeah, even that Browns jersey you specifically told your family you wanted to be buried in.

Well screw that guy! He wouldn't appreciate your earthly belongings, so how do you make sure he gets nothing? How do you make sure you the loved ones you care about get everything? You make a will!

Whether its disowning one of your relatives, making sure your family doesn't fight over your stuff (Probate Court is often referred to as "Divorce Court for siblings"), or just making sure your best bud knows to erase your browser history you are going to need a will to accomplish it. It doesn't have to be anything fancy. Just make sure it clearly identifies you, your possessions, and you sign it in front of two witnesses. Simple as that!

If you are curious: If your grandparents have no living descendants Ohio gives your possessions to your step children. If you have none, Ohio gets to keep everything.

A Spiritual Journey to the Real You

by Annette Tabar

Have you heard the call to freedom? What does it sound like? How does it feel? Are you able to tap into the wisdom of your heart and soul to know your true life path.

We celebrate a national holiday this month and for each of us on our own journey to knowing SELF, it means something different. Does it mean that you no longer wish to dwell in darkness, despair or desperation? But desire to wake up, rise up and take on a joy-filled life even when days are dark and the soul is in shadows. Refuse to participate in your own oppression. Be Free. Say "no" to doubt and fear of change.

It is your choice to renew yourself. With each breath you take you make a choice to live in truth of who you are and what you want from life. Learn to forgive, let go and move on. Give birth to your fullest soul expression of peace, joy and prosperity in all things. Choose to believe in your creative powers and the willingness of the universal life force to help you achieve success. Change your beliefs, change your behaviors and change your life!
